

PORT LUDLOW VOICE

Broadway Theater Presentations

The Village Social Committee's Theater season started with a dynamite production of Evita. Our luxurious $385,000 Janssen bus, provided portal to portal hassle-free transportation for the trip to Seattle's Paramount Theater. Everything went as planned including the weather. The day ended with a no host dinner at Anthony's Pier 66 Restaurant.

- Bob Fosse Dancers
- The Scarlet Pimpernel
- Rob Becker's Defending the Caveman (hysterically funny)

All of these events are programmed to be matinees so that you can anticipate getting back home at a decent time. Most of the presentations will be on weekends. All seats will be orchestra (front half). Savings on these group rates will be about 20% below market price. You may still purchase tickets through the Social Committee even if you do not want to take the bus. We do require a minimum of forty riders in order to utilize a bus and keep the costs reasonable. When we do take a bus we will plan a no host dinner stop at a local restaurant.

Our July Presentation

"Jekyll and Hyde" Saturday, July 24th

England, 1885. Dr. Henry Jekyll was the toast of London society. His days were spent in the pursuit of medical advances way beyond the imagination of his peers, his nights were another story...This all-new, Tony-nominated production of Robert Lewis Stevenson's classic thriller about good and evil is currently packing them in each night on Broadway. "J&H" has the same haunting, romantic appeal that makes "Phantom of the Opera" so exciting. Audiences can't get enough of it.

"The best musical I have ever seen!"
Larry King, CNN

"It's a phenomenon!"

This production of Evita is a revival using Latino performers in the lead roles and a slight change to the presentation. From Seattle the production goes back to Broadway. Those who have seen Evita before recognized some differences but all agreed the presentation was very well done.

Bus trips are planned for presentations of:

- Jekyll and Hyde, the musical in July 24th
- Sunset Boulevard with Petula Clark on August 15th
- Riverdance, October 3rd
- Cabaret
- Sound of Music (Richard Chamberlain stars)
- The Civil War, a musical

Paramount Theater Shows

"Sunset Boulevard" Sunday, August 15th

Matinee information on page 3.

"Riverdance" Sunday, October 3rd

We have reserved seating in rows 3 thru 7 in the orchestra section. This is a great opportunity to see the famous high-stepping Irish dancers at close range!

"Cabaret" January/February, 2000

The revolutionary reinvention of Kander and Ebb's hit musical "Cabaret," winner of four 1998 Tony Awards including Best Revival, will be the divinely decadent theatrical event of the season (or any other season). Co-directed by Sam Mendes and Rob Marshall, this production brings the seedy glamour of the legendary Kit Kat Club to Seattle, after being the talk of both London and New York.

"Stunning" raves The New York Times, "Cabaret" has returned with a vengeance!" (Exact performance dates to be announced.)

"The Scarlet Pimpernel" March 21st-April 2nd, 2000

Blackmail. Bribery. Deception. Welcome to the French Revolution, where a dashing English aristocrat risks his life to enter France and save lives from 'Madame Guillotine.' His identity must remain a secret to everyone around him, including his beguiling wife and her sly lover.

Currently delighting audiences on Broadway, "The Scarlet Pimpernel" is the swashbuckling musical where you will scream, cheer and even lose your head!

"You will love it! Wow!" Liz Smith, NY Post

"Astonishing. A Dandy of a Pimpernel!" NY Times

"The Sound of Music" starring Richard Chamberlain April 11th-23rd, 2000

The hills are alive with the first-ever Broadway revival of Rodgers and Hammerstein's

"The Sound Of Music," starring two-time Golden Globe Award winner Richard Chamberlain as the heroic Captain George von Trapp. This Tony Award-nominated production impresses audiences with its elaborate sets, stunning costumes and inspiring performances.

If "Edelweiss," "Climb Every Mountain," and "Do-Re-Mi" are a few of your favorite things, join us for this cherished family classic.

Rob Becker's "Defending the Caveman" May 2nd-7th, 2000

This is an hilarious one-man show that uses the caveman to explain why we are the way we are. Ladies, you will now learn why your husband is the way he is. Gentlemen, you will learn to understand the origin of the shopping gene.

"The Civil War" June 27th-July 9th, 2000

This is the Broadway musical as big as America itself — "The Civil War." It was a time of heroes and heartbreak, of glory and gunfire. It was a time when honor was something worth fighting for, and freedom a cause worth dying for. With a soaring, heart-pounding original score by Frank Wildhorn (the composer of "Jekyll and Hyde" and "The Scarlet Pimpernel") and influenced by Nashville and the pop and R&B worlds, "The Civil War" will feature powerhouse performances from an extraordinary cast of Broadway singers.

"Fosse" July 25th-August 6th, 2000

Dancer, choreographer, director, legend. Bob Fosse's distinctive style and unique vision revolutionized the musical theatre. From "Pajama Game" and "Damn Yankees" to "Sweet Charity" and "Chicago," Bob Fosse forever changed the way Broadway danced — he made it sophisticated, sexy and cool.

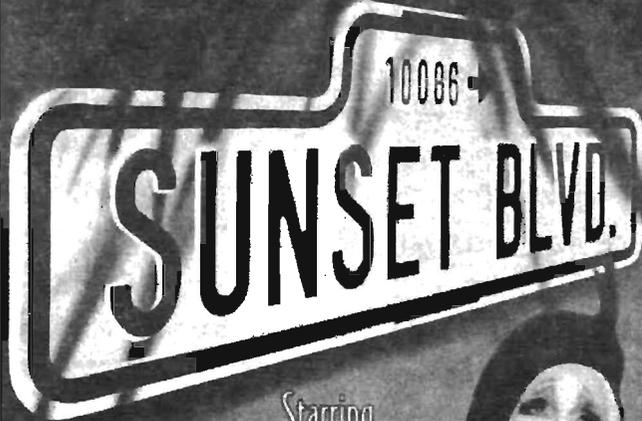

Now, Bob Fosse's groundbreaking work is in the spotlight again, in an amazing and original new Broadway production. "Fosse" is a cavalcade of highlights from one of the most provocative and influential talents of our generation, recreated by longtime Fosse stars Gwen Verdon and Ann Reinking, and performed by an extraordinary cast that gives us the dance of a lifetime.

North Bay Disaster Services Meeting

In the event of a disaster, communications will be the key to helping as many people as possible as quickly as possible. Bud Johnson will focus on Communications at the next North Bay Disaster Services meeting, Friday, June 4th at 2:00 p.m. in the Cove Room of the Beach Club.

Bud was appointed head of communications in the early days of the Port Ludlow Emergency Preparedness organization because of his Ham radio expertise, and it was decided that his home would be the central point of contact for the neighborhood captains via family radio. His goal in working with the group was to connect the Sheriff's office with Port Ludlow for use in emergency communications. This effort is now up and running with 24-hour contact headquartered in the Johnson home.

Bud has an extensive history in both television and amateur radio. He will present information on the use of the radio issued to each Block Captain, and inform participants about other communications possibilities, including ham radios and networks. Block Captains are asked to bring their radios; those who do not now have a radio will be given one at the meeting. All Disaster Services organization members, Captains and Co-captains are urged to attend this important session, and all those interested are welcome. For further information contact Marie Lytal at 437-7745.

Garden Tips for June:

Continue baiting for slugs. Like annoying relatives, slugs just keep showing up.

Deadhead Rhodies. Snap off blossoms as they fade but be careful not to remove the growth buds at the base of the flower stems.

After early blooming perennials flower, you can divide them. Remember your Garden Club friends who might like the excess you don't need. Transplant divisions in well-cultivated soil and water well. Do not fertilize until transplants are well established.

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 14th for a car-pool to Bloedel Gardens and Bainbridge Island Winery for lunch and to purchase grape vines.

Stars of International Opera a Huge Success

Those who were fortunate to hear Cynthia Lawrence and Mark Calkins enjoyed a stellar event. Cynthia and Mark sang a number of arias from "Madame Butterfly" to "La Boheme." The audience was enthralled. It is not often that we have stars of such a high caliber visit our small Village. We are all indebted to Judy McCay of Bayview Village, Cynthia's mother.

At the end of their performance they received a standing ovation. We sincerely hope that will induce them to return to Port Ludlow. What a treat.

Please remember our deadline for articles in the Voice. Plan ahead so that we can give your event all the publicity it deserves. Please submit by the 12th of the preceding month.

Village Social Committee Needs More Coordinators

The Village Social Committee is made up of people from throughout the Village who believe that we are all neighbors and that we should enjoy life together. The VSC has as its goal to coordinate social activities that span the Village and provide the most entertainment for the most people.

To date we have arranged three cocktail parties, a bus trip to Victoria, a theater trip to Seattle and a dinner at the Manresa Castle as well as a number of smaller events. We have many theater trips scheduled for the rest of the year, (see articles on pages 1 and 2). We are also planning an Octoberfest with an oompah pah band and plenty of good German food and beer. We are also looking at a cocktail party on the green for July, complete with a barber shop quartet. This may be the last fourth of July party of the century. Don't miss it.

The VSC is always looking for new ideas and events to share with our friends and neighbors. If you have an idea for an event and would like to join us you are most welcome. Our committee chair is Bob Wilkinson; he is assisted by a number of volunteer coordinators and you are welcome to join us. We will be meeting to plan future events on Friday, June 11th at 9:30 a.m. at the Bay Club.

Computer Virus Hoax

The widely circulated "It Takes Guts to Say 'Jesus'" hoax has added more "false authority" text to its message. Newer versions claim that AOL says the virus is "much worse than Melissa" and that there is no remedy for it. No remedy, true--but also no virus. Please don't pass this hoax to others, and if you know the person who sent it, you might want to point him or her to a page that explains the hoax, such as Data Fellows Web site at <http://www.datafellows.com/v-descs/hjesus.htm>

A Ludlow Lyric

"Potluck Ladies" by George Dyer, Jr.

We live in the potluck capital
Of the U.S.A. !
Nowhere else that we know
Has a potluck every day!

We are the Potluck Ladies.
We love to socialize.
If you will bring the main course,
We will bring the pies.

I brought the salad last time.
This time I'll bring a bread.
You bring an appetizer
Or a casserole instead.

We'll have a talk or lecture,
Or perhaps a fashion show.
We don't have time to listen,
But we surely have to go.

I will come with Sue and Sally.
We will hold a table.
You can come with Alice,
There'll be no room for Mable.

Gossip, chatter,
Gossip, chatter.
What did she say?
It doesn't matter.
How was your trip?
They are doing what?!
After one of our potlucks,
The entire day is shot!

The Potluck Ladies sing this song

Casserole ... apple pie
If it weren't for our potlucks,
We'd have to eat at home,

And it's so dull!

Country Blues Play at McCurdy Pavilion

Blues fans can enjoy some of the finest country blues musicians active today at three mainstage performances when Centrum hosts the Port Townsend Country Blues Festival at McCurdy Pavilion, Friday and Saturday, June 25th and 26th. And, if that isn't enough, six Port Townsend clubs will feature contemporary Northwest blues bands both nights.

The Friday performance at McCurdy begins at 7:00 p.m. and features Northwest musical treasure John Miller, the duo of Cephas & Wiggins, Michael Roach of Cheltenham, England and the irrepressible Saffire, the Uppity Blues-women.

Two performances are scheduled for Saturday at McCurdy with slide guitarist Orville Johnson, Otis Taylor, Jerry Ricks plus gospel vocalist and choir director Sherri Orr on stage at 2:00 p.m. Then at 7:00 p.m., harmonica player Mark Graham, the classy queen of acoustic blues Del Rey, Sam Mitchell all the way from the Netherlands, Alice Stuart and others take center stage.

Call Centrum at 385-5320 for advance ticket purchase.

"Barber of Seville" Staged in Bremerton

Kitsap Opera will stage Rossini's "The Barber of Seville" at Bremerton's Admiral Theatre under the sponsorship of the Washington State Arts Commission and the Boeing Company. Performances will be Thursday, June 24th at 7:30 p.m., Friday, June 25th at 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, June 27th at 3:00 p.m.

"The Barber of Seville" features Figaro, a multi-talented barber sung by baritone John Lippold of Portland. Figaro initiates the schemings and antics that keep this comedy bubbling to Rossini's unique musical style. The lovely spirited Rosina, sung by Teri Lynn Drinkwater from the Seattle area, is the object of matrimony for both her benefactor, the old Dr. Bartolo and the young Count Almaviva sung by tenor Joao Augusto O' de Almeida of Brazil.

Other cast members include Portlander bass Andre Flynn singing Basilio with Seattle area singers Laird Thornton as Bartolo, Louise Locke Craig as Bertha and John Paul Solomon as both Fiorello and the Officer. Johnathan Pasternac of the University of Washington will conduct with William Clarke of Seattle on the harpsichord. Tom Sunderland, who is active in Seattle theaters, is the Stage Director. The set has been designed and built by a Kitsap Opera staff member, Forrest Addy. Leone Cottrell-Adkins will direct the production.

Tickets can be reserved by calling 360-373-6743.

Supporters of the Arts in Ludlow Invited to a Party

The Arts Council invites members of the community who enjoy musical performance and are interested in supporting the Arts in Ludlow to attend a wine and appetizer party at the Bay Club, Friday, June 25th from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

The Arts Council board strives to provide a broad range of musical performances to satisfy the musical tastes of the community. They put on four Mainstage concerts and three Occasional Sunday concerts during the season. In addition they sponsor the popular "Music on the Green" summer outdoor concert as well as several benefits for young musicians.

"Putting on this many performances requires the efforts of many," according to Pat Anderson, program committee member. "We're looking for people who would like to lend a hand and serve on a standing committee, such as concert management, hospitality, advertising sales, finance and budget, publicity or program (concert booking).”

Arts Council board members hosting the party include Pat Anderson, Janet Force, Annette Koch, Beverly Rothenborg, Bill Schoenemann, Peggy Smith, Barbara Wagner-Jauregg, Diane and Jim Watson.

RSVPs are requested. Please call Pat Anderson at 437-0304 or Annette Koch at 437-0507.

Music on the Green features Jazz & Bluegrass

The Arts Council is sponsoring its second annual summer outdoor concert on the Bay Club lawn, Sunday, July 25th. A full afternoon of music featuring a trio of groups, all familiar to Port Ludlow audiences, will perform between 1:45 and 6:00 p.m.

Top billing goes to a long-time Port Ludlow favorite, the Uptown Lowdown Jazz, specialists in the vintage music of the 1920's as played by Jelly Roll Morton and Louis Armstrong and the music of the 1940's revival styles of Lu Watters and Turk Murphy. They'll be center stage from 3:00 to 3:45 p.m. and return for a final set from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

The afternoon program opens at 1:45 p.m. for an hour set performed by Alan Simcoe & his Quartet. Three of the musicians performed to a delighted audience here in April and now return with a fourth musician to play their special brand of jazz.

For a change of pace, Port Townsend's New Mown Grass rounds out the afternoon with their set scheduled for 4:00 to 4:45 p.m. This popular band plays and sings lively tunes in classic and contemporary bluegrass style, traditional fiddle tunes and country blues.

Seating will be on the lawn and concert goers are urged to bring folding low-backed chairs that sit low to the ground. Doors open at 1:00 p.m. for picnics and socializing. You can bring your own picnic basket or enjoy light food, beer, wine and soft drinks available for purchase.

Tickets will be available at the Bay Club after July 1st and sell for $12 with children admitted for no charge.

Port Ludlow Yacht Club

The Port Ludlow Yacht Club celebrated its 26th Opening Day on Saturday, May 8th at the Marina. An impressive flag ceremony was arranged by Rear Commodore Peter Joseph. Distinguished guests included the Commodores from Sequim and Port Hadlock Yacht Clubs, the Rear Commodore from Port Townsend Yacht Club and the Flotilla Commander on the Coast Guard Auxiliary Group.

Six Past Commodores of the PLYC were also in attendance. The invocation was by Past Commodore Howard Slack. Special music was arranged by Port Captain Vince Pace including a Piper and a Drummer in full Scottish uniforms, kilts and all.

There were 16 boats to be christened after the flag ceremony. These were either new members with unchristened boats or existing members who bought new boats during the past year. With sixteen proud boat owners pouring champagne freely to the assembled crowd, we felt lucky that no one fell off the docks!

After the christening, about 25 or 30 boats, mostly gaily decorated with flags and balloons, paraded around Commodore Keith Brown's boat which was anchored in the bay. All boats then returned to the docks where the partying continued into the early evening.

Except for a brief rain shower while people were eating lunch, the weather was really good which was surprising to some since the Commodore is a retired meteorologist and his boat is named "Rainmaker."

Port Ludlow Paddlers

By John Reseck

The Mexican Government was unaware of the major invasion that took place on the beaches around the town of Loreto in Baja California this April. The Port Ludlow Paddlers, twenty-eight in all, made ten beach assaults on the Baja coast over a two-week period. There were too many people for the small villa where we like to stay to handle at one time. No problem! We decided to go for two weeks instead of one and divided the group into the "first week bunch," and the "second week bunch."

One of the many fine beaches the Paddlers visited in Baja.

The Resecks, acting as guides, stayed for both weeks and coordinated the paddles. We did day paddles from the hotel and surrounding areas. The hotel carried our rental kayaks to various locations so we had a lot of variety in our adventures. We went to volcanic islands, brilliantly white sand beaches and mangrove lagoons. The water, although not bathtub warm, was warm enough (67 degrees) to snorkel in, and we did most every day. Next year we will arrange an overnight campout for those who would like to sleep on a nice sandy beach and fish/dive around a volcanic island.

If you feel the need to know more about our paddling family call Doris Monti at 437-0716 or John Reseck at 437-0351. If we are out on one of our upcoming trips such as Willapa Bay, the Broken Islands or Lake Powell, we will give you a call back when we return (after a nap of course!).

PEP Talk

Plans are well underway to prepare the human residents of Port Ludlow in case of a catastrophe. But what about our pets? Most of us who have pets feel they are a member of the family too, and would want them to be cared for and housed properly in the event our homes are uninhabitable.

Out of these concerns, a small group is working on Pet Emergency Preparedness (PEP). We hope to put together a comprehensive plan for our animal friends and present it to the larger emergency preparedness group and to all the pet owners in Port Ludlow.

An important aspect of this planning involves making sure all the animals are identifiable. A collar and identifying tag worn at all times is acceptable for most dogs, but probably not for cats. One good method for identification is a small chip, about the size of a grain of rice, that is inserted into the skin on the back of the neck. If a pet is lost, it can be scanned and quickly identified anywhere in the country.

Within the next few months, we expect to bring a veterinarian to Port Ludlow for a day to insert these chips, and we hope you will consider having this done for your pets' security. Watch the Voice and the Leader for further information on date, time and place. You can help in the Pet Emergency Preparedness by your participation.

We also would like to identify any practicing or retired veterinarians who might live in Port Ludlow, as well as veterinary technicians and assistants. If you know anyone with these skills, or would like to work with us yourself, please contact us at 437-2022 and leave a message, or e-mail mizg@olympus.net.

Duane 'Ole' Olson Bridge Tournament Winners

The Duane 'Ole' Olson Bridge Tournament sponsored by the Port Ludlow Bridge Club was played at the Bay Club on April 21st, 1999. Guests were members of the Jefferson County Bridge Club. Forty-four players participated in the event. Overall winners were Eleanor Roden and Cindy Olberding, both of whom play in both clubs. Other Port Ludlow players earning master points were Bert Goldstein, Alan Koch, Dorothy St. Onge, and Gloria Eckmann.

All North and South Bay players are urged to join us at the Bridge Deck on Mondays at 12:30 p.m. and Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m.

Avanti Car Show

On Sunday, June 27th there will be a display of Avanti automobiles, from the 1963 Studebaker models through the 1988 vehicles. These unique fiberglass convertibles are considered by many to be one of the best designs of the last fifty years. The Avanti was manufactured in 1963 and 1964 by Studebaker Corp. and from 1965 through 1989 by an independent car maker.

Organized by Avanti owner and Port Ludlow resident Kent Stansbury, the display of twenty Avanti automobiles will be at the Beach Club from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. and is open to the public. A noon luncheon will feature guest speaker Tom Kellogg, from Irvine, CA, one of the original design team members. The cost of the luncheon is $25.00.

Contact Kent Stansbury 437-2902.

Spreading the Word “Safety”

The Port Ludlow Coast Guard Auxiliary is busy passing out information on safe boating from its portable safe boating booth. The Flotilla put the booth up in Brinnon at Pleasant Harbor to disseminate information to as many of the shrimpers as possible. In their enthusiasm they tend to overload their boats and forget to wear their personal flotation devices - a combination that could be deadly. The booth was also part of Viking Days in Poulsbo. Much boating information was supplied and many Courtesy Safety Marine Exams were given.

Every time the booth is set up, two main activities take place: First, information on safe boating, environmental concerns, rules of the road and other boating activities are made available to the public. Second, Vessel Examiners do Courtesy Safety Examinations for anyone that would like their boat reviewed.

Every time we set up the booth it takes five people: two to tend the information booth and three Vessel Examiners to do exams. If you would like to be part of the action, call Sharon Reseck at 437-0351.

Farmers Market Is Up and Running

By Ralph Thomas

The Farmers Market opened this past month to a small but enthusiastic crowd. Produce is not yet available and this tended to keep a lot of customers away. The crafts vendors were very well represented as were the nursery folks with a large variety of plants and shrubs.

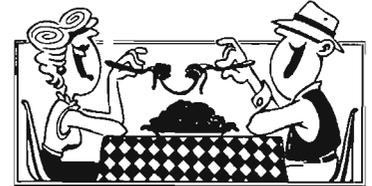

During the second week we were fortunate to have Warren Berg and Moulton Prussing marketing rhododendrons for the local Rhododendron Society. There were a number of species available as well as expert advice on the care and maintenance of this local plant. Thank you Warren and Moulton.

We are expecting to have more vendors and a return of the fresh shell fish and baked goods that were so popular last year. We are also looking for a second baker to have a supply of fresh bread available. As usual Mary Noel was at her post insuring that everything went well. We are most grateful for all she has done for our Village. We want to thank Olympic Resources for the use of the field at the commercial center and also thanks to the local merchants who have given us their much appreciated support.

Dining At The Inn

A number of Port Ludlow residents had the distinct pleasure of enjoying Chef Joe Merklings Italian night at the Heron Inn. This special event provided a delicious Italian buffet at a reasonable price. As usual the staff went overboard to insure that we all enjoyed the experience. The Port Ludlow Voice visits local restaurants regularly to report on where the best meals can be obtained. We are indeed fortunate that we do not have to go very far because we have the Inn.

This event featured Osso Buco, Calamari, a sea food medley, chicken parmigiano and a selection of Italian desserts. We all decided that Joe should be named an honorary Italian.

Our compliments also go to the pastry chef. Your cheese-cake was outstanding.

First Wednesday Luncheon

Last One Until September !!

This month's First Wednesday Luncheon will be Wednesday, June 2nd at the Bay Club. Punch, coffee and tea will be served at 11:00 a.m. and a “multi-salad” lunch at 11:30 a.m. Come and say “goodbye” to this year's board and “hello” to the ladies that will start their term in September! See you at the Bay Club on June 2nd.

Red Cross First Aid/CPR Instructor Training

Classes will be offered in First Aid/CPR Instructor training by the Jefferson County Red Cross at the Shold Business Center in Port Hadlock.

The first class will be held Wednesday and Thursday, June 16th and 17th in two four-hour sessions, 6:00 p.m.-10:00 p.m. The second class will be Tuesday and Wednesday, June 22nd and 23rd from 9:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m. both days. The second class will also be breaking down CPR methods for children, infants and adults.

There is a severe shortage of volunteer instructors in Jefferson County. Anyone interested is urged to contact Sandy Short, Jefferson County Representative for First Aid and CPR at the Red Cross Office in Port Townsend at 385-2737.

Tide Timber Trail

News from the 18-Hole WGA

No wonder people in the Northwest talk about the weather; it can be incredible here. Our first event of May got it all: drizzle, gorgeous sunshine, rain, thunder and lightning, sleet and marble-sized hail. The undaunted first place team of Audrey Wagner and Dorothy Miller were spotted finishing their final hole on a green literally covered with hail.

Our Snowbirds are starting their Northwest migration home; it's good to have you back.

Coming events in June:

Tues., June 1st: 8:00 a.m. shotgun, Low Gross/Low Net.

Thurs., June 3rd: 3:00 p.m. shotgun, Twilight Couples' 9-hole Tournament, followed by a potluck at the Beach Club.

Tues., June 8th: 7:54 a.m. first tee time, Captain's Cup (Mutt & Jeff).

Tues., June 15th: 7:54 a.m. first tee time, Captain's Cup (T&F).

Tues., June 22nd: 7:54 a.m. first tee time, 1-2-3 Competition.

Mon., June 29th: Mr. & Mrs. Tournament.

Tues., June 30th: Mr. & Mrs. Tournament.

Note: During the Captain's Cup event, there will be two sign-up sheets: one for those wanting to play in the tournament and another for those choosing not to participate. There will still be a game-of-the-day on those days.

Our membership is growing and new members are always welcome. If you have any questions about the 18-Hole WGA, please call New Members Chairperson, Sally Grything, 437-2065, or Co-Captain, Susan Wright, 437-9610. Undecided? Intimidated? We'd love to have you be our guest for a round or two and get to know us (to date, there is no documented evidence that any of the 18-hole WGA members bite).

Men's Golf Association

by Jerry Conover, Tournament Chairman

We are into the middle of May and though there have been cool days, we are enjoying the best of golf. I am sure the Ladies will be announcing two of the members have made an ace and we can tell you Sherman Swanson got a fancy hole in one, from the whites, on Tide #6. Following his stroke with a seven iron, his playing companions moved to the green, no ball was to be found until someone looked in the cup. Man, there was some shouting. This was not in the course of a scheduled Wednesday event and it was a special achievement.

At this writing the Men's Club has been fortunate enough to get its early May events played without a rainout. A highlight was when we entertained A Team from Canterwood in one of our home and home competitions. We squeezed out a win, something like Port Ludlow 30, Canterwood 8. Well, maybe it wasn't a squeeze, though you must remember we have to play them on their course. The matches at Canterwood will be held on May 26th. Beside our DOG steaming a professional 2 under par, Warren Petersen had a net 66 and Myron Vogt snapped a fancy net 67 on the invaders. Our guys played particularly well.

Yes, it has been almost three weeks since the greens have been aerated and now I have noticed the verticutting going on, roughs being mowed, limbs sawed and wind litter carried away. Make a point of telling Jerry Mathews, Jimmy Smith and/or the tail-busting crew how much we appreciate their work. The course shows their dedication. We benefit from it, and visitors are regularly overheard praising the excellence of the Golf Course. Their impression of Port Ludlow overall is equally commendatory.

Something to consider: Play 'em up more than you exercise the winter rules in effect. You are noticing rapidly improving conditions, and any time now Jerry M. may be recommending to Mike B. that summer rules be put into play.

If you want to feel crippled, wait until you get out on the course and you have been in the habit of moving your ball or lift, clean and place. It is a real awakening.

We started the Eclectic on May 5th. If you entered please get your checks to Mike Devine, made out to PLMGA.

Yes, you may turn them in at the desk.

A thank you note to Pam Elkins, Niblicks. She served us Swiss steak, one of Dorothy's recipes, and it could not have been better. She put out great chow for our awards luncheon.

Tony, you, Dave, Dick, Gary and Josh are so patient; thanks. We may not make it easy for you as some of us are grumps and grumpier and you guys roll with the punches. Good Show!

See you on the golf course, Port Ludlow of Course.

The Green Side

by Jerry Mathews

Just an update on where we are in our quest for being a certified golf course by the Audubon International Cooperative Sanctuary. The Audubon Society has recently sent us a certificate of achievement in "Environmental Planning." This is the first of six steps to certification. We would like to thank all of the residents who helped in putting this enormous package together and all who have volunteered to assist us with the next steps. Our goal is to complete these steps and reach certification by the end of the year. If anyone is interested in helping us complete our goal, please feel free to contact the golf shop.

We would like to remind everyone how important it is to forward any questions, concerns and suggestions to your Greens Committee representative. A lot of the improvements in the playing conditions of the course have been the result of their efforts.

P.G.A.

by Tony Manzanares

Most golfers are familiar with these letters, P.G.A., Professional Golfers Association. These letters also represent the basic foundation of a sound golf swing. The "P" stands for posture; a good consistent posture is key to a consistent golf swing. The "G" stands for grip; gripping the club in the fingers, proper grip pressure and a grip routine will help rid you of the left, right, left shot pattern (aka Army golf). The "A" stands for alignment; getting your body parallel to your target line will let your arms and clubface swing freely to your target. Just like you learned your ABCs and 123s, learn your PGAs and you will set the stage to capture that ever elusive repetitive golf swing.

Dog Notes (Director of Golf)

by Mike Buss

We would like to welcome all the lucky snowbirds back to Port Ludlow and hope they bring the nice weather they had down south back with them. It certainly has been an interesting weather pattern for us this year exceeding our yearly average rainfall total by April, and it has not seemed to let up much since then. In spite of all this Jerry Mathews (superintendent) and his crew have done a terrific job keeping the course in great playing condition and the greens are about the best we have ever seen.

We want to point out a couple of new things we have done to make your golfing experience at Port Ludlow more enjoyable. First, we have done away with our pin placement sheets. It seems we would all forget to pick one up or remember to check out the pin placement number for the day. We have added red, white and blue flags to our pins to indicate the location of the hole on the green. Remember red is in the front, white in the middle and blue in the back portion of the green. We hope this new flag system will help lower your scores. Let us know what you think.

Next, we have repaired the tunnel between Tide #4 green and #5 tee, and more significantly we have purchased a new attachment to our bunker rake that is a type of cultivator, in hopes of keeping our bunkers fluffier.

If you have not met them yet, please stop by and meet our two new staff members: Tony Manzanares, Head Professional and Dave Ramsay, First Assistant. They are a great addition and are happy to assist with all of your golfing needs, lessons, equipment, etc.

Don't forget to sign up for our annual Mr. & Mrs. Tournament to be held Tuesday and Wednesday, June 29th and 30th. Entry forms are available in the golf shop. This event will be the best we have ever hosted with lots of new prizes. Mont Blanc has donated two gift certificates of $175 to their Seattle store for a closest to the pin prize, along with over $500 in free raffle prizes and more than $1,000 in gift certificates. Be sure to sign up early, entry deadline is Friday, June 25th.

See you on the links.

Mike

Travel Tips for the Not-So-Young Cruiser

by Maureen Poole

Cruising, whether luxury, mass market or expedition, generally offers a satisfying and comfortable vacation for older travelers with all basic expenses included in one price. Cruise travel is simpler than land motor-coach tours, since you pack and unpack only once during the trip rather than every time the tour changes hotels. An air/sea package with transfers usually includes cruise line representatives who meet arriving planes and supervise transportation from the airport to the ship or an interim hotel. Shuttle service is available from your home in Port Ludlow to the Seattle airport.

The key to a delightful experience is to spend time and attention selecting the right ship and itinerary. Consider the size of ships and their amenities. Big boats can have surprisingly intimate gathering spaces. Investigate specific ports of call. Are you interested in seeing glaciers and wildlife? Exploring Hawaiian culture? Watching river traffic roll by on the Mississippi? Traveling outside the U.S.? Will you be traveling alone? With a group? Women traveling alone will feel secure on a cruise. Many lines provide gentlemen hosts to dance, socialize or fill out a card game.

Inquire if the ship can dock at a majority of its stops, or if it must anchor and use a tender (shuttle boat). For anyone with difficulty walking, or for wheelchair users, docking is important. Inquire also about the number of elevators and learn if they access the upper outdoor areas such as observation decks. If you need a cabin for the physically challenged, inquire also. Many older ships have raised thresholds to halls and outside decks. This could make walking difficult.

If you are concerned about a medical emergency, remember that a ship's size and itinerary directly affects how quickly sophisticated medical care can be reached. Large ships usually have more medical staff and facilities on board. Travel insurance should be considered. Various types are available and some cover pre-existing conditions for yourself or family. Plan ahead and your cruise vacation will be one to remember. Information is your best resource, and a travel agent can provide all this information.

Thanks From the Sea Scouts

The Scouts of Sea Scout Ship Falcon wish to thank the PLYC for the opportunity to sell donated items at the recent "For Sale By Owner" event at the Marina. The scouts made $387.00 for their program. These much-needed funds permit participation at regional regattas, such as the Pacific Challenge. Nine members attended this two-day contest from May 14-16 on Lake Union along with two hundred other young and "seasoned" mariners. The scouts will also attend the King's Cup Regatta in Scooke, British Columbia in August. Thanks to all who donated and/or purchased items at the Sea Scouts tables on May 1st and 2nd.

The Sea Scouts will have a different boat at the Marina this summer. It is a 36' gaff-headed, schooner-rigged, Tan Cook whaler named the "Franklin P." Look for her on the east end of E dock.

One more request: the Sea Scouts and our sponsoring agency, the Wooden Boat Foundation, have a serious need for rain gear. If anyone has used rain gear that they wish to donate, please call Dennis Madson at 437-5156.

Thanks for your continuing support!

Real Estate Tip:

Within 15 seconds a buyer has already developed an opinion of your property.

Establishing the right first impression is critical to achieving a successful sale. This includes "curb appeal" A quick painting of an old mailbox will let the buyer know you care about the details. If outdoor lamps look rusted and worn out, new ones will cast a positive light on your property.

Dining Out

By Ralph Thomas

If you would like an interesting yet inexpensive pasta experience try Lanza's Ristorante, 379-1900 at 1020 Lawrence in uptown Port Townsend (near Aldrich's Market and the Uptown Theater). Interesting because for a small local restaurant the food is quite good. Inexpensive because the most costly item on the menu is only $14. The Bistecca Stefano is a charbroiled Spencer steak marinated in garlic, olive oil and fresh Italian herbs and yes, it is only $14.

We passed on the steak in favor of a dish that was recommended by our host: The Patrone pasta dish contained chicken breast, Italian sausage and artichoke hearts in a parmesan garlic sauce over penne pasta and it was outstanding. One member of our group opted for the chicken piccata at $11. This was accompanied by a mixed green salad with a creamy Caesar dressing. This chicken dish was made with capers, green onions, tomatoes, goat cheese, olive oil and garlic and was served over fettuccine.

One of our diners enjoyed a seafood dish, scampi Pasenelli. This dish is made with large prawns, white wine, garlic, butter and fresh herbs and is served over pasta and for only $13. We also tried the soup of the day which was a chicken vegetable tortellini; and once again, it was excellent. Just so we would know, we ordered a side dish of Grandma Gloria's famous meatballs; and now we know why they are called famous. It is really great to find good spaghetti and meatballs.

One suggestion we would make is to improve the presentation of the dessert items. The cannoli looked very lonely all by itself on a big plate. We liked the tiramisu but did not care for the cannoli which we thought was too bland.

Lanza's is owned by Laurie Lanza and Steve Kraught. The restaurant has been a favorite in Port Townsend for some time. This was our first experience and we were quite pleased with the service, quality and quantity of the food. We will be dining there again.

Quilters By The Bay

Port Ludlow Quilters By The Bay have been busy making blankets for Project Linus. Mary Lou Wentworth is the Club's coordinator for the project and has delivered nine baby or juvenile quilts to the Port Ludlow Project Linus representative who distributes them to children in hospitals.

Quilters By The Bay will hold a drawing for a Christmas Quilt and a Christmas Wall Hanging called "Welcome to the North Pole" in October. The profits will go to furnish food and gift baskets for those in need at Christmas. This will be the third year the Club will donate the food baskets. Raffle tickets can be purchased for $1.00 each or 6 for $5.00 from any member of Quilters By The Bay or at the Bay Club.

Quilting Club members would like to thank the Bay Club staff for helping us with this project.

You can catch a sneak preview of the quilt which is hanging in the Bay Club, before it is taken to be quilted at Seaport Fabrics in Port Townsend.

Quilters By The Bay hold informal meetings each Wednesday at the Bay Club at 1:00 p.m. All Port Ludlow residents are welcome.

Computer Club

Win95/98/Internet SIG

The Win95/98/Internet Special Interest Group (SIG) will meet Monday, June 21st at 3:00 p.m. at the Bay Club. Larry Chockie, co-facilitator of this SIG, is back from wintering in Arizona. He will now replace Warren Berg for the summer months, permitting Warren to tend to his rhododendron garden. During his stay down south Larry served as President of the Dreamland Computer Club, and facilitator of the Office/Windows SIG and co-facilitator of the Saturday Workshop for that Club.

His June presentation will illustrate the capabilities of Office 97 utilizing a couple of new publications including Office97, One Step at a Time, an interactive, sound enhanced software that allows one to call up the book's step-by-step lessons right from your own documents. He will demonstrate how this reference is a resource for first-time learning or quick, on-the-fly refreshers.

Bring your questions. The software, or someone, might even provide the answers.

The Pluperfect Virus

A new computer virus is spreading throughout the Internet. Named Strunkenwhite after the authors of a classic guide to good writing, it returns e-mail messages that have grammatical or spelling errors. It is deadly accurate in its detection abilities, unlike the dubious spell checkers that come with word processing programs. The virus is causing something akin to panic throughout corporate America, which has become used to the typos, misspellings, missing words and mangled syntax so acceptable in cyberspace.

The CEO of LoseItAll.com, an Internet startup, said the virus has rendered him helpless. "Each time I tried to send one particular e-mail this morning, I got back this error message: 'Your dependent clause preceding your independent clause must be set off by commas, but one must not precede the conjunction.' I threw my laptop across the room." A top executive at a telecommunications and long-distance company, 10-10-10-10-10-10-123, said: "This morning, the same damned e-mail kept coming back to me with a pesky notation claiming I needed to use a pronoun's possessive case before a gerund. With the number of e-mails I crank out each day, who has time for proper grammar?"

If Strunkenwhite makes e-mailing impossible, it could mean the end to a communication revolution once hailed as a significant timesaver. A study of 1,254 office workers in Leonia, N.J., found that e-mail increased employees' productivity by 1.8 hours a day because they took less time to formulate their thoughts. (The same study also found that they lost 2.2 hours of productivity because they were e-mailing so many jokes to their spouses, parents and stockbrokers.)

The virus also has left government e-mail systems in disarray. Officials at the Office of Management and Budget can no longer transmit electronic versions of federal regulations because their highly technical language seems to run afoul of Strunkenwhite's dictum that "vigorous writing is concise." The White House speech-writing office reported that it had received the same message, along with a caution to avoid phrases such as "the truth is. . ." and "in fact..."

There is concern among law enforcement officials that Strunkenwhite is a harbinger of the increasingly sophisticated methods hackers are using to exploit the vulnerability of business' reliance on computers. "This is one of the most complex and invasive examples of computer code we have ever encountered. We just can't imagine what kind of devious mind would want to tamper with e-mails to create this burden on communications," said an FBI agent who insisted on speaking via the telephone out of concern that trying to e-mail his comments could leave him tied up for hours.

Meanwhile, bookstores and online booksellers reported a surge in orders for Strunk & White's The Elements of Style.

(Adapted from a piece by Bob Hirschfeld.)

A Letter from the Computer Club Prez

John Reseck started the speaker portion of the General Meeting by saying he didn't know anything about computers. His presentation about the Y2K was well received by all and was not hampered by his not knowing anything about computers.

Our June meeting will be given by two of our club members. One half of the program will be dedicated to capture applications such as SnagIt with Warren Berg handling the explanation. Bob Force will give the other half concerning the Microsoft.edu web site and how you can benefit from its use.

This is a help educational program to assist you with the everyday use of your computer. Plan to be at this meeting on Monday, June 14th 6:30 p.m.

Also on the agenda for June is the election of the new PLCC Board for 1999-2000. This brings to an end my two-year stint as President, and I would like to say thanks to my Board members: Mary Ronen for a fine job of putting the newsletter together each month and getting it out to the membership; Warren Berg for all the many hours spent assuring us of a smooth operation; Moulton Prussing as Treasurer handling the ins and outs of the club accounts; Bob Force with good suggestions and guidance along with teaching the spreadsheet course; Janice Downs doing the secretarial tasks and the snowbird, Larry Chockie, who is President of his computer club in Arizona and gives us a different view from the southern club (he also does the Windows SIG). One who started the educational class program, along with getting PLCC on the Internet, is Ralph Thomas. And Bernie Kestler, who has taught the many Beginners Classes and is our director of education, has added to our membership from the classes which has resulted in the present membership level of 240 (or a little over 10% of the Port Ludlow population.)

To all of these people and to you the members, thank you for a fun time.

Bob Graham

Computer Classes

Well, it's time to get back to work & tackle that new computer project that you've been putting off! Classes are now forming for several Beginner's Classes at the Bay Club starting late August and lasting one day per week for four consecutive weeks. These classes are suitable for beginners, people contemplating a computer purchase, people who wish to understand the basics of Windows 95/98, Email, Internet Browsing & Letter Writing or people looking for a basics refresher. These classes are extremely popular and fill up quickly. The fee is nominal and includes an easy to use text. If you have interest or wish to register, please call Bernie Kestler at 437-5102 for all the details.

A Word class will start on Tuesday, June 22nd from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. and will last for six weeks. Course cost is $40 and includes the text "Woody Leonhart Teaches Office 97." The cost is $25 for those of you who have this text already from previous classes. If you, or someone you know, wish to attend the course, please call Bernie Kestler at 437-5102.

Computers Needed

Some of our own Bay Club colleagues volunteer time to help Jefferson County abused, neglected or abandoned children. Occasionally, the use of a computer is very helpful in their rehabilitation efforts. Right now, a computer is needed for an abused child. If you have an obsolete but working computer, or are thinking of replacing or disposing of one, this worthy child would be most appreciative. If you would like to help, please notify the Jefferson County Guardian ad Litem Program at 385-9190 and mention our volunteer contact Bev or Mason Rothenborg.
