From the Editor's Keyboard

by Beverly Browne, Managing Editor

The Port Ludlow Voice has always been devoted to providing its readers with the most complete monthly coverage of local news and community events that the all volunteer staff could manage to compile. In doing so, the staff has endeavored to convey what they believed to be true, helpful, and accurate, and that would serve the best interests of the community as a whole.

The publication has always been delivered free to addresses within the MPR. That does not mean that it is free to produce. Its financial supporters include the homeowner associations (SBCA and LMC), the Village Council (PLVC), its advertisers, subscriptions, and sometimes donations from individuals in the community. As a non-profit, tax exempt 501(c)(4) organization, we are able to provide our services economically with the help of our supporters. We value their assistance.

In my roles as writer/reporter and then as managing editor, I have been proud to be associated with this publication and its excellent staff. However, circumstances dictate that I must shelve my computer and move on. A replacement has been difficult to find, but we have found an excellent person in Caleb Summerfelt, who will assume the role of the next Managing Editor of the Port Ludlow Voice. He will be supported by a staff of volunteers who will share the responsibility of bringing you the information you need to take advantage of all Ludlow offers.

We believe this change in editorship will work well for our loyal readers. The Port Ludlow Voice will continue as an independent publication devoted to the high standards of journalism that it has always championed and to the promotion of Port Ludlow as a place to make your home. Although I feel regret at leaving this beautiful community and its people, I know I am leaving this publication in excellent hands. Thank you, Port Ludlow, for your support of the Port Ludlow Voice over all these years.

This column is devoted to editorial comment and contains the opinions of its author. Letters may be sent to the new managing editor at csummerfelt@plvoice.org.

Celebrate Summer

by M.J. McCulloch, Contributing Writer

My interest in the solstices began a few years ago when I stood inside the innermost chamber of a prehistoric mound in Newgrange, outside of Dublin. On the Winter Solstice, the shortest day of the year, I watched the light of the rising sun come through a small opening in the mound, travel up a narrow passage, and totally illuminate the chamber. It was only a simulation, but it was eerie, especially when you realize the people who figured out how to accomplish this did so long before the pyramids were built.

Now, I want to talk about the Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year, which is coming up this month. This year it falls on June 21, but it can also happen on the 20th or 22nd, depending on all those scientific facts, which I don't believe are fake. Solstice comes from the Latin words sol, meaning Sun, and sistere, meaning to come to a stop or standstill. On the day of the June Solstice, the Sun reaches its most northern position, as seen from Earth. At that moment, its zenith does not move north or south as it does on most other days of the year, but stands still at the Tropic of Cancer. It then reverses direction and starts moving south again.

For astronomers and scientists, the summer solstice marks the first day of summer, while for meteorologists, summer begins much sooner, on June 1. Many Northern European countries consider the June Solstice to be the middle of summer and call their celebration of this event Midsummer Eve. At one famous prehistoric solstice site, Stonehenge in England, great monolithic stones are aligned to sunset on the winter solstice and the opposing sunrise on the summer solstice. The site of a large solstice festival, it had some 12,000 people gathered to watch the sun rise last year.

For many cultures, this date symbolizes change, nature, and new beginnings, and is celebrated with feasts, bonfires, picnics, and traditional songs and dance. Austria's solstice celebration in the Tyrol is a scene to behold, as torches and bonfires are lit up on mountain-sides in the Wachau und Nibelungengau valleys. The best place to see that spectacle is from the deck of a ship on the Danube River. Then there is the Mount Olympus trek in Greece, or the Secret Solstice Festival in Iceland, a music festival that lasts for 72 hours of daylight. Or, honor the sun with an all-day yoga event in Times Square, complete with sun salutations. In Porto, Portugal, it's called the Feast of St John, with endless food and drink, as well as spectacular fireworks on the Douro River at midnight.

If all these events are beyond your reach, you can still celebrate the coming solstice by waking up early to watch the sunrise, building a bonfire on the beach, hiking up Hurricane Ridge, or having a sumptuous picnic in the woods. And since you are celebrating new beginnings, here's another chance to revisit those New Year's resolutions, which may have fallen by the wayside.

Picking Up a New Habit

by Jo Buck, Display Advertising Manager/Guest Writer

I know for me, coming from the Los Angeles area, the hardest thing about living in beautiful Port Ludlow is the lack of an "In-N-Out" within reasonable driving distance. Well, finally, we now have what I would term the equivalent of the best burger ever. The Habit Burger Grill opened in March in The Trails shopping center, 11196 Pacific Crest Place, Silverdale.

My husband checked their website and found that if you sign up for their club you get a coupon for a free Charburger, so we decided to try it out. The second time, I signed up for the free burger. We have now been back four times. It's definitely becoming a habit.

Their signature Charburger features a charbroiled patty, toasted bun, caramelized onions, sliced tomato, dill pickle, lettuce, and mayo. American cheese, mushroom, pineapple, avocado, and bacon are extra.

Burgers are made to order in several combinations. A meal with Charburger, drink, and generous fries is under $8. The menu also includes tri-tip, chicken, fish and vegetarian sandwiches, and salads, as well as onion rings, tempura green beans, sweet potato fries, special kid's meals, frozen shakes, and treats. There is something for everyone.

Hot, fresh, and quick. You pay at the register and they give you a pager that buzzes you when it's ready.

They really needed to rent a bigger space; tables are tight, but you can get your food to go or eat in their outside patio.

The Habit started in Santa Barbara in 1969. They are franchised across the country. More information is available at habitburger.com. You can also order on-line or by phone 360-204-5615. They are open every day from 10:30 a.m.-10 p.m.

Where are the Remnants of Old Port Ludlow?

by Tim Rensema, Guest Writer

Port Ludlow has a very interesting and colorful history as a one of Jefferson County's early industrial towns. Few remnants of that history exist today. The Pope and Talbot (Puget Mill) company town slowly died when the mill closed in 1935, at least in its original industrial form.

Pope and Talbot demolished buildings and structures. In the 1940s, the majestic Admiralty Hotel – the building that Cyrus Walker built in 1887 to outlast fire – was razed. The beautiful Phinney House was demolished in the 1900s. In its heyday, Port Ludlow had a small hospital, a dentist and doctor, a school for all grades, a water supply, electricity powered by the mill, housing, and stores. It had a thriving ship-building company belonging to the three Hall brothers, an active ferry system, and of course the mill. It also had a cemetery, but not a church.

The population of 623 in 1940 has increased to 2,621 today, but as a resort and a retirement community. We still have the cemetery, though it has been overgrown since 1930 and encroached upon by various infrastructure projects. The North Bay Greenbelt Committee is planning to clear the cemetery area of underbrush. Efforts are being made to locate old gravestones and return them to the cemetery.

There is a movement in Swansonville (Save the Church) to restore the Christian Congregational Church in its original setting. This church was the only church for 20 miles and provided the communities of Shine, Paradise, Port Ludlow, Mats Mats, and Swansonville with a place of worship. People would walk up the trail (current Swansonville Road) to the church, just as students and workers of Swansonville would walk down the trail to go to school and the mill in Port Ludlow. Little of the old Port Ludlow remains today, except for memories and photographs.

For those interested in Port Ludlow history, read Richard Osburn's Narrative of a Cemetery and an oral history transcript of Signe Swanson, who lived in Port Ludlow from the early 1900s to the late 1990s. They are available at the Jefferson County Genealogical Society's Research Center (wajcgs.org/research-center), located at 13692 Airport Cutoff Road, Port Townsend. There is a non-member fee of $6 for adults and $5 for seniors to use the Research Center. The Jefferson County Historical Society at 540 Water Street in Port Townsend is another great source of county history (jchsmuseum.org). Anyone wishing to participate in researching the history of Port Ludlow and its surrounds should contact Tim Rensema at aedomguru@aol.com and consider joining the newly forming Port Ludlow History Club.

CARE For Older Americans

compiled from AARP and Other Online Resources

More than 800,000 Washingtonians care for older parents, spouses, or other loved ones, helping them to live independently in their own homes. Many do complex medical tasks for their loved one with little if any medical training. Nevertheless, when it comes to improving the care of older adults, family caregivers are too often left out of the equations. These family caregivers have a huge responsibility, and on June 9, 2016, a new law took effect that will make life a little bit easier for them. The CARE (Caregiver Advise, Record, Enable) Act, or Senate Bill 6327, helps family caregivers when their loved ones go into the hospital and as they transition home.

While slightly different in each state, the CARE Act requires hospitals to:

- Provide your loved one the opportunity to designate a lay family caregiver and record the name on the medical record.
- Inform you when your loved one is to be discharged to another facility or back home.
- Provide instruction or training on the aftercare tasks you will need to perform at home.

The CARE Act has received bipartisan support from state lawmakers across the country. AARP Washington supported the CARE Act because supporting caregivers is a top priority for all of us.

CARE has been enacted in about 30 states. Washington is one of them, given the importance of this issue, but the law's benefits are not widely known. The public needs to have more information about the law and how it can help struggling caregivers and patients. Information about caregiving resources is available at Community Living Connections, (washingtoncommunitylivingconnections.org) or AARP's Caregiver Resource Center at 877-333-5885. Also, look at the AARP Thinking Policy blog, Stepping up to support Caregivers.

Ken's Gardening Corner

by Ken Taylor, Contributing writer and photographer

For those of you that have put in vegetable gardens and are experiencing a rather lackluster season so far, it is most likely due to our above average rainfall and cooler than normal nights. I can say from experience that the only vegetables doing much of anything in my garden right now are the onions, garlic, lettuce, potatoes, and strawberries. You should start seeing better results in the next few weeks as the temperatures warm up.

Of pests in the garden, slugs are the big problem right now. Far and away the best course of action against slugs in your garden is a simple adjustment in the watering schedule. Slugs are most active at night and are most efficient in damp conditions. Avoid watering your garden in the evening if you have a slug problem. Water in the morning and the surface soil will be dry by evening. Studies show this can reduce slug damage by 80 percent.

Another remedy is using diatomaceous earth, usually found at Home Depot, Lowes, and other similar outlets. If you are spotting aphids on your leaves, a good blast of water will get rid of them. I am currently trying out an experiment using crushed serrano peppers and water in a pump up sprayer sprayed on the vegetable leaves. I'm not sure if this is an old wives' tale, or a remedy that really works. Stay tuned.

Most likely, your winter bulbs have finally run their course. Dig up and discard tulip, daffodil, and hyacinth bulbs that performed poorly this year, for example, bulbs that sent up spindly leaves and stalks and few if any flowers. Most tulips and hyacinths only last 2 - 3 years and peter out after that. Now that the soil has warmed enough, plant summer bulbs, including gladiolas, cannas, and tuberous begonias. Prune spring-blooming shrubs and trees, such as lilacs, forsythia, and crabapples, as soon as possible after bloom. Snap off the old flower heads of rhododendrons, but be careful not to injure new branches emerging right beneath the faded blooms. Also, shear azaleas by removing the outermost inch of new growth to encourage foliage developing lower on the stem and an overall bushier plant.

Last and most importantly, mulch, mulch, mulch! If you haven't already, apply a layer of mulch on flower beds and around trees and shrubs once the soil has warmed sufficiently. Mulch reduces weeds, conserves moisture, and prevents disease. Eat healthy, and Happy Gardening.

Your IRA shouldn't stop working when you do.

Jack Randall Honored

by Barbara Berthiaume, Contributing Writer

Jack Randall was honored with a Heart of Service Award for his school safety work, as well as his early years forming the Olympic Peninsula Chapter of the Bluebills. The three local Rotary Clubs and the Peninsula Daily News sponsor the Heart of Service awards.

Meredith Wagner, Director of the Jefferson County Library, introduced Jack at the Fort Worden Commons in May at the annual Heart of Service Luncheon. In addition to founding the Olympic Peninsula Boeing Bluebills in the early 1990s, Jack has been an active volunteer with the Weekend Backpack Nutrition Program and most recently the Citizens for Safe Students. He has sold, by donation, three-day emergency kits that are now stocked at the Chimacum Creek Primary and Elementary Schools. His goal is to stock the entire Chimacum School District as well as the Quilcene School District with these emergency kits.

The kits protect students and schools in case of a prolonged disruption that occurs during school hours. The kits are great for cars, home, and other family members as well. They have a shelf life of five years and include food bars, drinking water, LED flashlight, survival blanket, waterproof pouch, N-95 dust mask, and other necessary items. The kits cost $22 and are available at the Bay Club and through Jack at 360-301-0123.

Dr. Shannan Kirchner will continue to lead Family Medicine services, along with C. Wesley Schott, ARNP.

To support these services, the new Clinic features an expanded waiting and resource room, six exam rooms, a procedure room for visiting specialists, and a consult room for providers and nurses to work from.

"We are happy to be expanding services and making care more accessible and convenient for the Port Ludlow community," said Colleen Rodrigues, Clinic Practice Manager. "We are proud to make this investment so fewer people need to go across the water for healthcare."

New patients are welcome. Call 360-437-5067 to schedule an appointment. The Clinic will host a Grand Opening celebration in July 2017, and the community will be cordially invited to join. For more information about Jefferson Healthcare, visit jeffersonhealthcare.org.

New Resource Offers Mobility for Older Adults

by Barbara Berthiaume, Contributing Writer

According to the National Council on Aging, every year one in three Americans aged 65 and over falls. This is the leading cause of fatal and non-fatal injuries for older Americans. They are costly in dollars and can result in hip fractures, broken bones, and head injuries. Even without a major injury, older adults may become fearful or depressed, making it difficult for them to stay active. However, practical lifestyle adjustments and small improvements to a home can reduce falls among seniors substantially.

Grab bars, railings, chair and sofa risers, and transfer poles are used to prevent falls, facilitate ease of movement, and provide help in case of a fall. Installing grab bars may help getting in and out of the shower, facilitate using the bathtub wall by helping persons lower themselves safely into, and get up out of the water, or aid in entering and exiting a home. Handrails on stairways and other common points of entry to a home are necessary but commonly neglected aids. Risers help in getting up from a chair or sofa, as can transfer poles. They also substitute for grab bars when none are available.

Fortunately for our community, Dave Parrish and his wife, Gail, met Bluebill Myron Vogt at the monthly Bay Club Social. Dave inquired about the woodworking shop and Myron, on learning that Dave enjoyed building things, asked if he would like to help the Bluebills in their Fall Prevention Program. Dave dove in and to date has installed 30 grab bars and assisted with six wheelchair ramps. The Parrishes moved from Maui in September, 2016, and are now both active members of the Port Ludlow community. If you need grab bars or other aids installed, call Dave Parrish at 360-344-2561 or email him at parrishdav@aol.com.

Conserve Energy with Native Plant Gardens

Learn how to build a garden that will use less water, increase insect and bird diversity, and require less maintenance, on Wednesday, June 14, at 6:00 p.m. at Jefferson County Library in a workshop taught by Master Gardner Sarah Fairbank.

Sarah will explain the benefits of using native plants for landscaping. Native plants require less water, are more disease resistant, and encourage greater diversity of insect and bird populations. The payoff of using native plants is a less maintenance-intense garden. Sarah will explain which native plants are suited for this area. In terms of deer resistance, Sarah won't make any claims.

Sarah was a Master Gardener for 28 years in Corvallis, Oregon. She has been in Port Townsend since 2003. She enjoys helping the public solve gardening problems at plant clinics using research-based information. This program is co-sponsored by Jefferson County Master Gardeners.

Jefferson County Library is located at 620 Cedar Avenue in Port Hadlock. Library events are always free and everyone is welcome. Seating is limited, so please arrive early. For more information about this program, visit jclibrary.info or call 360-385-6544.

It's almost summer and Jefferson County Library is kicking off their Summer Reading Program, themed "Build a Better World," on Monday, June 19, at 6:00 p.m. with An Evening at Hogwarts, a celebration for all ages. Build a better world through imagination and celebrate the 20th anniversary of the publication of the book Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone: make your wand; be sorted into a house; win points for your house by answering trivia questions; hunt for magical creatures; and have your picture taken with Harry and his wizard friends and professors.

Programs for both kids and adults will be offered from June 19 – August 9 at the Port Hadlock campus, in the Multipurpose Room at Chimacum Creek Primary School, and at the Quilcene Community Center. To Infinity and Beyond

Mathematics is often described by mathematicians as an art, a creative endeavor to discover beauty in the universe. On Wednesday, June 7, at 6:30 p.m., Jefferson County Library will host mathematics professor Mike Hitchman as he explains how this description of mathematics may be at odds with one's memories of math classes in school.

In an effort to bridge that gap, Hitchman will discuss the concept of infinity, a topic with deep, surprising results accessible to all. From agreed-upon definitions, we will head swiftly and joyously to the conclusion that infinity comes in different sizes. Just leave your assumptions about the sizes of things at the door on the way in.

Born and raised in Olympia, Dr. Hitchman earned his doctorate from the University of Oregon and has taught at Linfield College since 2009. One of his favorite courses, aimed at humanities majors, offers a survey of "great ideas" in mathematics. This course focuses on beautiful theorems in mathematics that are largely accessible to students without the need for much mathematical background. The topic of infinity is especially popular in the course, and Dr. Hitchman is excited to share a mathematician's view of infinity in this program.

Jefferson County Library is located at 620 Cedar Avenue in Port Hadlock. Library events are always free and everyone is welcome. Seating is limited, so please arrive early. For more information about this program visit jclibrary.info or call 360-385-6544.

Newcomers Welcome Event Scheduled

Have you moved to Port Ludlow in the past year to eighteen months? Have you lived here for a while but still feel relatively new? If so, you are invited to the Community Newcomers Welcome Program on Thursday, July 12, at the Bay Club from 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. Wine and appetizers will be served and you will have the opportunity to meet your neighbors, get acquainted with over 40 different community organizations, and see what Port Ludlow has to offer.

Many newcomers have been greeted in North Bay by Jamie Bima, Sandy Rothwell, or Kris Stapleton, and in South Bay by Mary Ellen Meryhew, Lynn Lemieux, or Phyllis Waldenburg. If you have not met any of the greeters, please look them up at the Newcomers Welcome.

For those who have lived here for a while but still feel new, this is a chance to rediscover the many activities in our community and reconnect with friends and neighbors. If you have new neighbors who have moved to Port Ludlow in the past year, knock on their doors and invite them to attend the Newcomers Welcome.

For more information, contact co-chairs Janice Chamberlain at 206-498-0260 or by email at cecilcatl@gmail.com, or Stephanie Hew at 360-437-9516 or by email at stevie585@gmail.com.

Bacteria Sampling of the Ludlow Shoreline Completed

Jefferson County Public Health finished winter monitoring for fecal coliform bacteria along the Port Ludlow shoreline in March 2017. Fecal coliform bacteria are indicators of pathways for contamination and potential risk of waterborne diseases. When bacteria levels are high, people can get sick from swimming or water recreation.

Overall, most sample results were well below the State limit for primary contact during recreation, 100 CFU/100 ml of fecal coliform bacteria. Four sites exceeded the state limit. Note that one area in the lagoon south of the Twins could not be sampled. We hope to investigate further to determine why bacteria levels are high at the sites marked in orange and red.

The study will be completed in the Fall of 2017, after a summer season of shoreline monitoring. We will post our findings along with other water quality updates for East Jefferson County on the Water Quality and Shellfish section of jeffersoncountypublichealth.org.

Fire Departments Practice Skills

by Brad Martin, PLFR Chief

On June 17, your fire department will participate in a Field Day at the Trail Nine Golf Course in Port Ludlow where newly trained wildland firefighters will perform practical skills. This training is a prerequisite for obtaining what is known as Red Card certification and changing participants' status to Wildland Firefighter II.

A drone will be used to film the exercise, which will allow participants to review the various stages of training.

Skill stations planned for this event include Wildland Urban Interface/Structure Preparedness utilizing various types of wildland equipment used in firefighting; progressive hose lays—securing a water supply using portable pumps and water tanks to supply firefighting hose operations; Entrapment Avoidance/Fire Shelter deployment—identifying escape routes, safety zones, and deploying fire shelters, among others.

Agencies invited to the exercise include East Jefferson Fire Rescue, Quilcene Fire & Rescue, Brinnon Fire Department, and Discovery Bay Fire District. Clallam County Fire District 3—Sequim, Washington Department of Natural Resources, and the US Forest Service will also participate. Personnel from Olympic National Park, Kitsap Fire, and Engine 91 from NAVMAG-Indian Island have also been invited to participate.

I am announcing the exercise early, so no one is fearful of what is happening. Everything we do will follow strict safety guidelines and must follow set protocols and policies. We ask that residents avoid the area if possible, just to ensure the safety of our community members.

As always, I like to make sure that if anyone ever has any questions or concerns, or would like more information on anything we are doing here at Port Ludlow Fire & Rescue, please contact me at brad.martin@plfr.org or bmartin@plfr.org. You can also call the station at 360-437-2236 and set up a time to come in and speak with me or your firefighters.

Guided Walk to Tamanowas Rock

Come explore Tamanowas Rock, an ancient sacred site right in your own backyard! Jefferson Land Trust and the Jamestown S'Klallam Tribe will lead a guided walk to Tamanowas Rock on Saturday, June 17, 10 - 11:30 a.m.

Tamanowas Rock (pronounced "Tah-MAH-no-wahs," and also known as "Big Rock" and "Chimacum Rock") has been a sacred place and pilgrimage site for local tribes for over 10,000 years, and is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Its name roughly translates as "spirit power" or "guardian spirit." Geologically speaking, the rock itself is unique in its many caves and crevices, and is over 47 million years old – older than the Cascades and the Olympics! The surrounding hills and forests, which abut Anderson Lake State Park, are remarkably biodiverse, supporting an unusual array of plants and wildlife.

Whether you're interested in local history, spiritual lore, natural history, or just stretching your legs and exploring a new place, this walk is for you! Trails are uneven with some steep slopes. Bring water, sturdy shoes, and dress for the weather. No need to RSVP, but contact the Land Trust at info@saveland.org or 360-379-9501 if you have questions.

The entrance to Tamanowas Rock is on Anderson Lake Rd. in Chimacum. From Rhody Dr., travel past SKP RV Park (on the right), and take the second turnout on your right. It is marked with a Jefferson Land Trust sign; the gate will be open to provide ample parking. See saveland.org.

Community Meetings

First Wednesday Luncheon

This month's Luncheon will be held at the Bay Club on Wednesday, June 7, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. There is no fee for admission; we only ask for your support by donating non-perishable foods, personal toiletries, household products, and/or monetary donations.

Bernie Robinson will bring us her program "Hula for Health," describing how dancing the hula can be beneficial to staying healthy and young. A few of our neighbors will accompany Bernie to show us some of the basic steps of this special hula dance.

Sign up for the luncheon at the Bay Club, Beach Club, or Nextdoor Port Ludlow, nextdoor.com/neighborhood/portludlow, as soon as possible to ensure adequate seating arrangements and refreshments are prepared. If you are late in signing up, contact Marilyn Durand at 360-437-7677.

We went green several years ago, so we are requesting that you bring your own table service (plate, napkin, silverware, cup and/or glass). The money saved by not providing your place setting will be donated to the food bank.

If you are unable to attend the luncheons, there are receptacles for contributions located near the entrance of both clubs.

NOTE: This will be the last luncheon for the 2016-2017 season, and we will be back on Wednesday, September 6, at the Beach Club. Our program will feature Paula Lalish, a Celtic Harpist from nearby Nordland, WA.

Cash for Gold Sale Reminder

Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA) is holding its precious metal buying show from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 17, at the Bay Club.

You'll be paid top dollar for broken or unused gold, silver, or other precious metal jewelry; gold and silver coins; sterling flatware, hollowware; and any other precious metal items you'd like to convert to cash.

The $25 admission fee will be returned to you if you sell your items. Your fee will be refunded because Cash for Gold generously donates 10 percent of all sales to CEA's Scholarship Fund.

Martha's Book Club

Join us at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 13, at the Bay Club to discuss We Are All Completely Beside Ourselves by Karen Joy Fowler, a strong, unsettling novel that draws on true accounts of animal behaviorists raising chimps along with infant children.

The New York Times bestselling author of The Jane Austen Book Club introduces a middle-class American family, ordinary in every way but one. Meet the Cooke family: Mother and Dad, brother Lowell, sister Fern, and Rosemary, who begins her story in the middle. She has her reasons. "I was raised with a chimpanzee," she explains. "I tell you Fern was a chimp and already you aren't thinking of her as my sister. But until Fern's expulsion, she was my twin, my funhouse mirror, my whirlwind other half, and I loved her as a sister." As a child, Rosemary never stopped talking. Then, something happened, and Rosemary wrapped herself in silence. In We Are All Completely Beside Ourselves, Karen Joy Fowler weaves her most accomplished work to date – a tale of loving but fallible people whose well-intentioned actions lead to heartbreaking consequences.

The book club does not meet in July and August. See you in September. Everyone is welcome.

Men's Book Club

We will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 21. Our meeting place is the conference room at the Bay Club.

Members are sharing excerpts from some of their current readings, such as a history of London, and Bauer's Run.

We are eager for new members. Call Brian Cullen, 206-910-1075 or Ken Thomas, 360-437-7906 for more information.

Senior Singles

Please join us at noon on Tuesday, June 13, for a delectable lunch at Snug Harbor Café in Port Ludlow. The lunch menu contains a choice of delicious salads, as well as other items.

Snug Harbor can accommodate only 18 members of our group, so please call Peggy at 360-437-9935 with your reservations no later than Tuesday, June 6.

Be sure to wear your name tag.

Stamping and Paper Arts

Looking for another fun, creative way to fold your cardstock and turn it into a great greeting card? Come join our stamping group at the Bay Club on Wednesday, June 21, from 10:00 a.m. to noon, where Pat Nesbitt will demonstrate two unique folded cards for you to make and take.

One is called the “squash fold card” and can be found on YouTube if you’d like to see a preview of it. Pat will provide the cardstock, but suggests you bring flat decorations, and stamps with a theme such as flowers, butterflies, balloons, animals, etc. The size should be small – less than three inches. The second card is a “diagonal gate fold” card that looks complicated, but is very easy. She will also provide the cardstock for this, but to decorate and complete your card, bring some pens to edge it, as well as flat flowers, balloons, or feathers. Also, stamps with sentiments such as: thank you, happy birthday, thinking of you, and get well soon would work on decorating both cards. As always, bring your basic stamping tools and a bone folder. Call Pat at 360-437-0323 with any questions.

Remember to bring “show and tell” handmade cards or paper crafts to share, as well as your bargain-priced used stamps and supplies for viewing and purchase.

For those who have a Big Shot or other type of embossing and die cut machine, we will meet on Wednesday, June 28, from 10:00 a.m. to noon, at the Fire Station in Port Ludlow. Bring ideas to share and try out with the group.

CEA’s Monthly Lunch Will Visit the Old Alcohol Plant Restaurant

The Community Enrichment Alliance (CEA) June Out to Lunch (OTL) will be held on Tuesday, June 20, at 12 noon in the recently reopened Old Alcohol Plant Restaurant. We will be among the first groups to visit them for lunch as luncheon service will begin Memorial Day weekend. Hopefully, the sun will shine and we can fully enjoy this beautiful location.

We will order from the menu and separate checks will be provided. The menu selection ranges between twelve and seventeen dollars and includes a wide assortment of options featuring the cuisine of Chef Albert Chitwood. Chitwood has trained in both traditional Italian and classic French cuisines. He worked previously in Sonoma, California, as well as Wisconsin and Hawaii.

Reservations should be made with Roz Greene at 360-437-9870 or rpgreene@aol.com. The reservation deadline is Wednesday, June 14.

All CEA monthly OTL activities are open to the public and we look forward to sharing them with the community. The restaurant is located at 310 Hadlock Bay Rd, Port Hadlock, WA 98339. Further information about the venue can be found on their website oldalcoholplant.com.

Many surprises await as you explore the grounds and nursery selection of trees, shrubs, annuals, perennials, succulents, fairy garden accessories, bird houses, fountains, and more! Be sure to see the whimsical “Hobbit House.” The friendly, knowledgeable staff will be available to answer questions. Sam Maupin, master gardener and horticulturist for Brothers Greenhouse, spoke at our February meeting on building healthy soil.

After exploring the Greenhouse, we’ll dine at Debbie Macomber’s Grey House Cafe, formerly named the Victorian Tea Room. RSVP to porthudlowgardenclub@gmail.com by Monday, June 5, if you will be dining with us. After we receive your RSVP, we will send you the menu choices and the directions.

Geoffrey Castle and Sounds of Summer

by Peggy Welker, Guest Writer

If you are ready to cast aside this wet gray winter, there is no better way than by joining Port Ludlow Performing Arts (PLPA) as we usher in summer with the Sounds of Summer concert on Saturday, June 24, at the Bay Club. Geoffrey Castle, who began his career as a street musician in New York City and Paris, will entertain us with some serious toe-tapping electric violin music. A theme of Castle's career has been to destroy people's pre-conceived notions of what is possible on a violin, which he does every time he takes the stage! He is a pioneer on the electric six-string violin, and loves to bring his wide diversity of musical styles to his high-energy rock music and Celtic celebrations.

From his humble beginnings, Castle rose to play in the Tony Award-winning Broadway production of Madame Butterfly. He is a show producer and bandleader with several critically acclaimed releases on his own Twisted Fiddle Music label. Geoffrey Castle has also managed to share stages with an illustrious group of musicians and musical groups.

Castle's fresh approach to Celtic music is most evident on his latest release, Streets of Inwood: Celtic Soul, bringing a more urban, smooth, and bluesy approach to traditional Celtic material. The Seattle Post-Intelligencer called his solo debut of Mist on the Mountain "A pure, uncluttered masterpiece." The Anchorage Daily News headlined Castle as being a "Jaw dropping rock violinist." It is always live performance that continues to be the focus of Castle's career.

A graduate of Columbia University, Geoffrey Castle lives in Kenmore, Washington, with his wife Shannon, and has called the state of Washington home since 1995. He is also an advocate of community outreach and is committed to inspiring the next generation of musicians in school assemblies, workshops, and fundraiser performances.

Tickets for this must-see concert are available on Sunday, May 28, at the Bay Club, and through Brown Paper Tickets on the PLPA website. They are $35 per person with "box lunch" dinners included in the ticket price. The concert will be cabaret-style seating with the usual no-host bar. Doors open at 5:00 p.m. for dinner, and the concert begins at 6:00 p.m. Please note that tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis and are NOT included in the season ticket packet. The concert will be open seating except for PLPA benefactors and underwriters who will be given reserved seating preferences. Pull out your summer duds and come join us for this fun evening of good food and great music!

Olympic Music Festival's 2017 Season

Artistic Director Julio Elizalde announces the Olympic Music Festival's (OMF) artists and concert programming for the 2017 summer season, which takes place Sunday, July 9 through Sunday, September 10, in partnership with Centrum at Fort Worden in Port Townsend, WA. Now in its thirty-fourth season, the festival has received nationwide recognition for its mission of presenting many of the biggest names in classical music who will perform moving and exciting repertoires throughout the summer.

The OMF will present thirteen concerts over seven weekends in addition to a special concert for children and their families on Sunday, August 27, at 10:30 a.m. All concerts take place at the Joseph F. Wheeler Theater at Fort Worden except for the summer gala. Since becoming Artistic Director in 2014, pianist Julio Elizalde has built upon the OMF's longtime standard of excellence while simultaneously expanding the educational outreach to the organization's local audience.

"Last season, the OMF underwent a profound transformation after the festival moved to Port Townsend to partner with Centrum at Fort Worden," says Elizalde. "I was completely blown away by the unyielding support I saw from our patrons and artists alike and am truly humbled by their continued commitment to this organization."

Returning for her third consecutive season, superstar violinist Sarah Chang performs at the OMF's special summer gala on Sunday, July 9, 2:00 p.m. at Fort Worden's Chapel. General admission tickets are $100 and include a post-concert champagne reception with the artists. Proceeds from this event benefit the OMF's educational programs and summer concert series.

Chang will be joined by an extraordinary group of debuting and returning artists in a one-time performance of Mozart's famous Eine kleine Nachtmusik and Vivaldi's Four Seasons. Performing with Chang will be Dami Kim and Kristin Lee, violin; Vicki Powell, viola; Jennifer Culp, cello; Travis Gore, double bass; Julio Elizalde, harpsichord.

For information about and/or to receive a brochure detailing the full season, contact Susan Miller, at 360-385-9699 or go to info@olympicmusicfestival.org.

Two Artists, Two Spotlights

Dark and Stormy Night, artist Marilyn Sandau.

One spotlight is on mixed media artist Marilyn Sandau as the Port Ludlow Artists' League's (PLAL) Artist of the Month. During her college years, an exhibit of works by Joseph Cornell sparked her imagination and placed the seed for her own art pieces many years later.

Making a collage is like working a puzzle, moving the pieces around until they "fit," paying attention to color, movement, and shape. Sandau particularly loves to work with old crumbly papers, tissue papers, and old text, both English and foreign, as well as sheet music. Texture is also important, and she has incorporated such things as Braille pages, screening, wire, buttons, lace, and cheese-cloth into her collages, as well as dimensional paper.

Sandau has recently begun to work in series, giving her the opportunity to develop an idea more fully. An avid gardener, she sees her garden as a living collage, with color, texture, shape and movement, and strives to translate that beauty onto her artwork, capturing the serenity of her garden to share with others.

The second spotlight shines on jeweler Nancy Palsulich, who comes to Port Ludlow with a varied artistic background. As an eighth-generation florist, her world has always been filled with color. An avid gardener, she rehabbed gardens in California, Virginia, Florida, Colorado, Maryland and New Mexico – again, all about color. She has also achieved a "master designer" status in interior design, taking her to even more places and events throughout the country.

With a family background in art and art history, she was drawn to art glass and semi-precious stones, and began collecting stones, which led her to design jewelry and add silversmithing to her talents and skills. Some of her jewelry incorporates "vermeil" which she discovered on a trip to Italy. She also plans to go back to painting again. Says she, "The fun thing about retirement is you can try all the things you never had time for when working!" Her jewelry is carried at both the Gallery and The Inn, and her mystery book, Bauer's Run, is at the Gallery.

All are welcome to the League's Second Wednesday Reception on Wednesday, June 14 to meet these artists and enjoy their artwork in the lobby of Sound Community Bank from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. and next door at the Gallery, from 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. The reception is a great way to celebrate the beginning of summer and get to know the fine artists of our community. The bank and the gallery are located at the corner of Oak Bay Road and Osprey Ridge Drive. More information can be obtained by contacting League President Claudia Wicks at 206-351-2414 or email at claudiawicks@msn.com.

Port Ludlow Artists' League Paints Rocks

On Wednesday, June 21, the Port Ludlow Artists' League (PLAL) sets aside serious artistic pursuits to focus on the fun of painting rocks.

Serious artists and dabblers alike will enjoy kicking back with a common rock, acrylic paints, and friends to create colorful rocks for adding a little fanciful touch to your garden, sharing with others, or simply having a delightful little piece of art. The League will provide everything you'll need to create your painted rock: the paint, rocks, brushes, and instruction.

Painted rocks have been popular for centuries, but recently have become a nationwide movement to help spread delight, random acts of kindness, and to encourage art in everyday life. A group called “Port Ludlow Rocks” aims to bring simple joy with painted rocks by partially hiding them in public areas for others to find and then re-hide for someone else.

The rock painting is at the Bay Club at 1:00 p.m. Art League members attend free of charge and guests are welcome to join in the painting and social time for a $5 donation to the Chimacum art scholarship fund. New members are always welcome. For more information, contact Patricia Webber, PLAL program chair, at 2pw@gmx.com.

LVP Silent Auction for Nude with Violin

by Val Durling, Director

Ludlow Village Players (LVP) are still in the process of wrapping up Nude with Violin: inventorying of props and costumes, etc., storing same, completing the archives book, and putting everything in its rightful place. Traditionally the cast and crew get together for a party after the last performance to celebrate, tell stories about backstage happenings, and enjoy good food together. We are all rather reluctant to part ways. On the other hand, we look forward to restoring our lives to normalcy, without all those hours of rehearsals.

Those of you who attended the play will remember the surprise unveiling of Nude with Violin, the painting, at the end of the show. The original artwork was created for LVP by Port Ludlow’s very talented and widely acclaimed artist Carol Durbin who also chairs LVP’s set décor committee. Many in the cast and crew had expressed their wish to purchase the painting. Hearing that, Carol generously donated the painting for a silent auction with proceeds to be donated to LVP. A painting of this size would have brought several hundred dollars on the retail market.

The winner is Gary Baird, a new Port Ludlow resident and now actor, who played the son Colin, and who is a true Brit to boot. He expressed the joy it is to have such a great souvenir for his very first play. We hope that means we might see him on the Port Ludlow stage again one day. The Ludlow Village Players are also the winners.

Jefferson Museum of Art and History

Navigator’s Strategy, Artist: Stephen Yates.

The Jefferson Museum of Art and History’s current exhibit, “Pat and Peter Simpson: Collectors and Patrons,” is based on the art collection of Peter and Pat Simpson. It will present the work of nine artists: Tom Wilson, Jo Ann Alber, Kate Jenks, Anne Hirondele, Stephanie Lutgring, Stephen Yates, Linda Okazaki, Galen Garwood, and Ed Cain. Stephen Yates created a large painting, Navigator’s Strategy, specifically for the exhibit.

The exhibit features pieces mostly from the mid-80s, along with works by the same artists from later points in their career. “By showing some of their more contemporary work, we get a little bit of a survey of those artists and how their work has progressed,” said curator Ann Welch.

Pat and Peter Simpson were known for many things, Pat for her work at Centrum and running, and Peter as the director of Port Townsend Film Festival, his writing, and his work at Community Action. Unless you’ve been to their home, or are an artist, you may not know that they were also serious art collectors.

The Simpsons donated the bulk of their collection to the Jefferson County Historical Society. Their son David loaned the family portraits by Thomas T. Wilson to the museum for this exhibit. This exhibit, and the Simpsons' generous gift, demonstrates a growing awareness of the Museum's increased focus on Port Townsend's identity as an art community.

"Over the last few years we've made a concerted effort to highlight art, the history of art, and even art that's contemporary to our moment in this town," said curator Welch.

An additional exploration of the role art has played in Port Townsend's history is found in the book that accompanies the exhibit, Pat and Peter Simpson: Collectors and Patrons, co-written by Mary Coney and Jenny Westdal and designed by Ann Welch. The book is available at the Museum store and on Amazon. The exhibit, open now, will be on display until September. The Museum is open from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. daily and is located at 607 Water Street, Port Townsend.

Community Reports

Jefferson County: Jefferson County Commissioner Kathleen Kler was scheduled but was unable to attend due to another engagement in Olympia.

Port Ludlow Associates (PLA): Diana Smeland reported that there were 15 lots left in Ludlow Cove. As of the meeting date, Olympic Terrace II, Phase I, had two new presales. The commissioners will decide if an extension will be granted.

Jefferson Healthcare is working on the interior of the clinic. The opening date is not yet known. Exterior siding is being added.

PLA has been talking to senior care providers to see if it is feasible to construct a facility in Ludlow that would accommodate independent and assisted living. Interested firms are doing due diligence. The company received 400 responses to their survey and thanks the associations for their participation. It is expected that such a facility would also attract residents from outside Port Ludlow. The likely location would be in the area now occupied by PLA offices. Zoning there is appropriate for the development of a facility.

Smeland announced that Dick Schmidt will become the Director of Golf at the Port Ludlow Course.

Council Business and Committee Reports

Treasurer's Report: Mike Nilssen gave the treasurers report. The ending balance stood at $32,386.74. The Iron Mountain Quarry legal fund closed on April 17 with all remaining funds ($3,645) transferred to the Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) business account. Nilssen recommended that the treasurer be assigned to research various higher interest bearing certificates of deposit and/or investments that can provide a higher rate of return.

Nilssen also discussed an offer from Amazon Smile. Persons buying certain goods from Amazon would be able to designate the Council as a recipient of one-half percent of certain sales. No specific action was taken.

Secretary's Report: Minutes from April were approved. A phone vote on proposing a joint meeting between the associations and PLVC was confirmed. There were a number of items of correspondence incoming. Outgoing were letters supporting extension of PLA's development permits in Olympic Terrace II, an insurance payment, and letters to Iron Mountain Quarry (IMQ) donors.

Traffic Safety: Steve Frenzl reported he had received feedback that indicated the proposal should be more aggressive. To that end a 4-way stop at Breaker Lane has been added to the proposal.

Trails: Doug Huber reported on Trails. He said that Osprey Trail is now complete. Larry Scott has resigned, as he said he would when the trail was done. Huber outlined Scott's committee's achievements. They are as follows:

- 2006: Completed the Interpretive Trail with signage and seating.
- 2007: Developed the Beaver Dam Loop portion of the Timberton Loop.
- 2008: Developed the Niblicks Loop Trail.
- 2009: Resurrected the Ludlow Cove/Picnic Point Trail and repaired asphalt section of the Around the Bay Trail (ABT).
- 2010: Developed a section of the ABT from Anchor Lane to Ludlow Creek, chipped the Lower Rainier Trail, and consolidated professional reviews.
- 2011: Developed Dunsmuir Cut, Camano Cut, Cressey Cut, Drew Cut, and developed a section of Picnic Point Trails.

- 2012: Developed Estuary, Talbot, and Beach Loop Trails. Recognized request to develop biking trails and asked Drainage District to reconsider drainage plans in greenbelt.
- 2013: Scouted Osprey Trail, developed the Golf 9 Loop, replaced a damaged bridge, rebuilt the Interpretive Trail, repaired the Montgomery Loop.
- 2015: Rerouted the Picnic Point Trail and built a bridge to span a washout on the Interpretive Trail.
- 2016: Reconfigured steps from South Keel Lane to Paradise Bay Road, developed DNR trails, repaired sections of ABT.
- 2017: Developed Osprey Trail.

Scott received a commendation in grateful acknowledgement of his service.

Community Development Committee: Larry Nobles resigned as chair of the committee. He will continue to serve as a member. The new chair of the committee is David Jurca.

Maritime Committee: Phil Otness reported that the problem of speeding in the bay has been reduced. However, a buoy is missing. There has also been progress on eliminating boats anchoring in Ludlow Bay in violation of state law.

Emergency Preparedness: The new handbook will be discussed at the workshop. The handbook, Think, Plan, Do, was the inspiration.

Teal Lake Tree Harvesting: Dave Jurca said that the logged area is close to the cul-de-sac at Mount Constance. Logging is nearly done in that area as of the date of the meeting.

Joint Meeting of LMC, SBCA, and PLVC: Gil Skinner discussed the proposal to have a joint meeting to brainstorm ideas about cooperation between the community groups. He supported the idea of having a joint meeting. A May meeting date was proposed.

Linda Haskin objected saying that the LMC did not know about the proposal until very recently. She read a letter from LMC President Randy Deering which rejected the meeting date citing the complicating issue of getting a new board. A more complete description of the proposal and response is in the accompanying article from PLVC President Dean.

Comments from the Audience

Dave MacDermid recommended the PLVC establish a designated amount to put into a CD.

Dave Jurca complained about difficulty accessing the archive. Caleb Summerfelt said that he is in the process of building a new data base. The site will be live with the new base in a month or two.

Announcements: The meeting adjourned at 4:20. The next meetings of the PLVC are displayed in the accompanying box. All Port Ludlow residents are invited to attend PLVC meetings and participate in village governance.

Council/HOA Meeting Proposed

by Bill Dean, PLVC President

At the April 18 Port Ludlow Village Council (PLVC) Workshop, it was suggested that the PLVC needed to do a better job of fulfilling its primary mission to “be a unifying force within Community.” After some discussion of ways to do that, it was concluded that a way to commence that fulfillment would be to hold a joint Board Workshop with PLVC, Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC), and South Bay Community Association (SBCA). The purpose of the workshop would be to brainstorm ideas on how the three boards could encourage unifying elements of the Port Ludlow community.

Such a joint workshop would be a take-off on the work done in 2010 headed by Art Zoloth called the Futures Study and/or the One Port Ludlow concept. The latter is suggested for the name of the current effort. PLVC Board members approved the workshop for May.

On May 1, LMC advised that due to other priorities, as a result of their new Board having just been elected, they would not be able to participate in a workshop until a later date. Consequently, PLVC scheduling activities were suspended. The date and content of the meeting is being considered. PLVC has agreed to hold the joint PLVC, LMC, SBCA workshop as soon as possible, when it is convenient for all parties, and to spend up to $300 for a lunch at the event, the cost to be charged to the Community Development Committee.

New LMC Officers and Committee Chairs

by Sally Orsborn, LMC Secretary

The Ludlow Maintenance Commission (LMC) Board of Trustees welcomed new trustee Austin Kerr, representing the lot owners, at the April 20 meeting of the Board. Reelected were trustees Randy Deering, a condominium representative, and Mike Nilssen, representing lot owners. All will serve three-year terms.

Randy Deering assumed the presidency of the Board with trustee Linda Haskin as the new vice president. Sally Orsborn will continue as secretary and Mike Nilssen remains treasurer. Carol Shamhart continues as recording secretary for the Board. The terms of office are one year between the April annual membership meetings.

Committee Chairs were appointed by President Deering and approved by the trustees at the April meeting. They are: Carol Ann Napheys, serving temporarily as chair of the Architectural Control Committee (ACC); Carol Shamhart, Covenants and Regulations (CRC); Sue Milner, Communications (CC); Brian Belmont, Elections (EC); Ned Luce, Finance (FC); Jack Riggen, and Ron Garton co-chairs of Greenbelt (GBC). John Maki has agreed to serve as acting chair on a temporary basis of Operations (OC). Teddy Clark continues as chair of the Dream Team Task Force.

According to policy, trustee representatives serve on all board-authorized committees. The following appointments were made by President Deering and approved by the board: Carol Napheys and Kay Raffo (ACC); Austin Kerr and Sally Orsborn (CRC); Randy Deering and Carol Ann Napheys (CC); Allan Kiesler and Sally Orsborn (EC); Linda Haskin and Mike Nilssen (FC); Viktor Gecas and Linda Haskin (GBC); Allan Kiesler and Mike Nilssen (OC); and Randy Deering, Dream Team.

Further business in April concerned the 2016 Strategic Plan, which gives direction for Board Goals for the year. LMC member attendance is encouraged at both Board and Workshop meetings.

Unintended Consequences

by Brian Belmont, General Manager

Most of us love living in our beautiful Port Ludlow community. In addition to the wonderful people living here, we have incredible scenic views of the mountains, the water, and green forests.

We also have an abundance of wildlife living around us with regular sightings of deer, raccoons, coyotes, and a wide assortment of bird species. At times, it feels like we live in paradise in our small Port Ludlow village.

In order to enjoy the wildlife even more, some of us have taken to feeding our non-human neighbors. I, for one, have had multiple bird feeders in my backyard with the hope of attracting more bird activity for my personal viewing pleasure.

What I didn't anticipate was not only did I see an increase in the bird population, but also the rodent population. In case you didn't know, birds are messy eaters. They usually litter the ground below the bird feeder with spilled seeds and hulls from the cracked seeds, all of which provide a tasty meal for rodents and squirrels. Once these four legged visitors have a steady food source, they start looking for a warm cozy home nearby, which in many cases is your home.

Recently, I heard a similar outcome caused by someone who was feeding our local deer population. The rodents moved in to clean up after the deer and then moved into the crawl space of a neighbor's home, which ended up costing several thousands of dollars in cleanup costs and repairs.

Raccoons are adorable to watch while they eat, almost human-like in the way they handle their food. However, raccoons can be extremely destructive to homes and yards. I once found a mother raccoon living on a partially-enclosed deck with her two babies, where she had used her front claws on the cedar siding causing nearly $5,000 in damage. A neighbor was feeding the raccoons on a regular basis which encouraged the raccoons to stick around.

Unfortunately, there are unintended consequences that may arise for you and your neighbors caused by feeding the wildlife. The purpose of my article isn't to try and convince people not to feed the wildlife, but to make them aware that if they choose to feed, be mindful of the potentially harmful repercussions and take steps to minimize them.

If you have questions or comments about this article or the on-going work at the Beach Club, I can be reached at 360-437-9201 or by email at beachclub@olympus.net.

SBCA Meeting Highlights

by Beverly Browne, Managing Editor/Reporter

President Gil Skinner called the meeting of the South Bay Community Association (SBCA) to order on Friday, May 12, at 9:30 a.m. All directors were present. They retired to executive session immediately to discuss conversations with the SBCA attorney and personnel matters. The Board reconvened at 10:01 a.m.

President Skinner welcomed attendees and described the meeting protocol. The agenda was approved. The minutes of the April 14 Regular Board Meeting and the April 24 Special Board meeting were approved.

Board Reports

Manager's Report: The Flag Retirement Ceremony has transitioned from Memorial Day to Flag Day on June 14. Other accomplishments during the month are:

- Two capital contributions were received from Port Ludlow Associates (PLA). A total of 17 have been received.
- Plumbing issues in the pool area have been solved.
- The curtain drain project is completed.
- The Ham radio antennae have been reinstalled and tested.
- The fitness equipment has been installed in its new location.
- Association Reserves will conduct a professional review of the SBCA Reserve Study. The report should be complete by the Annual General Meeting (July 19).
- The Public Utility District (PUD) and Bonneville Power Administration (BPA) are conducting an energy audit to document savings due to the siding project and the addition of a heat pump for the pool area.
- Roof leaks are still ongoing. Contractors will be available in June or July for repair.
- There are six new members.

Treasurers Report: Treasurer Dan Quail began by reporting total assets not including the cost of the Bay Club, the appraised value of which is $2.5 million. In April 2017, $6,105.00 was transferred to reserves. Total reserve accounts stood at $167,924.32. The accounts include the Kitsap Capital Improvement account, the Reserve Maintenance Money Market Account (Kitsap Bank), and the Reserve Maintenance CD at Sound Bank.

Total Construction Related accounts were $174,213.35, including the Special Assessment Account and the Benevolent Account. The Reserve Account balance, including the capital Improvement Fund, was $167,924.32. One of the goals of the board is to preserve the reserve account.

Operating expenses in April were $52,352.79. Construction expenses were $922. There were no reserve expenses. Bank Statements are received after Board meetings. Balances do not include interest earned or bank charges for April 2017.

Communications: There has been a complaint about aggressive behavior in the fitness room. Dave Jurca and Dan Quail investigated and interviewed the parties. It was resolved and there is no further action. The complaint was closed.

Architectural Review Committee (ARC): Thirteen applications were received and approved. One application was ratified and one was acknowledged (tree and debris removal in a common area). The approved applications were for patio extensions, home painting, changing the color of a front door, adding handrails, tree removals, and landscape modifications. The committee continues to examine the application processes.

Facilities Committee: The fitness area has been reconfigured, with some of the exercise machines and the weights moved to the exercise room. The floor exercise people will be rescheduled in the auditorium. A stretching area is planned to be in the area where the piano is currently stored. The committee reviewed two landscape contractors. The contract is granted to NW Lawn (Monarch Landscaping) at a cost of just less than $16,000.

Bev Browne is relocating and has resigned from the committee. She is replaced by Bob Kemp. The changes were accepted by the Board.

Activities Committee: Steve Frenzl said that there would be a special social event in honor of Mother's Day at the monthly social tonight. Movie Night on the third Tuesday (May 16) will feature the film Man of the Year with Robin Williams. Films have been selected for the rest of the year. Barbara Burke is taking over as the head of the Activities Committee.

Jan Knodle has donated two quilts for the Bay Club Raffle. This is a fund raiser for the Bay Club.

Finance Committee: Dan Quail reported that there are only a half a dozen people delinquent in their payments. He expects the roof repair to cost $15,000, with $4,000 for resealing. The funds are to be treated as a reserve expense. The Board voted to approve $19,000 for roof repair to be taken out of the reserve account. The leaks were the result of portions of the roof not being sealed properly. The roof was leaking because of a design failure.

The Finance Committee is seeking a new member. Nominations will be taken at the next meeting. The Committee meets on the Tuesday before the regular Board meeting.

Human Relations Committee: Dave Jurca developed an employment agreement between the General Manager and the SBCA. It lasts for five years and specifies the conditions of termination, with and without cause. The agreement is effective immediately. Health coverage for the family was discussed. The agreement is to be reviewed annually.

Village Council: Gil Skinner gave a review of the activities of the PLVC (Port Ludlow Village Council). For details, see the report on the Village Council pages in this issue. Steve Frenzl expanded on the report by discussing the traffic safety project.

There was a motion to accept all the reports. It was seconded and passed.

Other Business

South Bay Lane Property: A motion was made and passed to resolve the ownership of the property with a quitclaim deed from Pope. The problem stems from records that misstate the name of the South Bay Community Association.

Associate Memberships: Dave Jurca reported that associate memberships are allowed and the limited access status of the swimming pool is no longer an issue. The prospective associate members who applied under the reduced initiation fee period ($2,500) would be accepted. After that, the fee can go back to the original $3,000. This motion passed.

Hana Farr suggested that the associate members should be subject to special assessments like the regular members. They are not now. This policy change could be done by contract and will be taken up later.

Teal Lake Road Repaving: The County will resurface Teal Lake Road between Paradise Bay Road and Woodridge (approximately half a mile) with asphalt. The project will take two to three weeks. One lane will be open for traffic during this period.

Port Ludlow Hiking

by Dan Darrow, Guest Reporter

A cadre of devoted hikers gathered recently to plan adventures for the Summer and Fall. After the planning session, the group enjoyed a potluck of salad, soup, and dessert. A complete schedule of the outings has been e-mailed to the hiking e-mail roster. Copies are also available at the Bay and Beach Clubs. Here are the outings for June.

Unless otherwise noted, hikers meet at the Bridge Deck at 8:15 a.m. to arrange carpools, get directions to the trailheads and depart at 8:30 a.m.

Friday, June 2 – Tubal Cain

Expect a moderate to difficult hike of 7 - 9 miles with 1,100-foot elevation gain. The first part of the hike is a steady climb through a rhododendron forest that, hopefully, will be blooming. After 3 miles, the trail splits and there is a steep climb to the ultimate goal, viewing the remaining wreckage of a B-17 bomber that crashed in 1952. Information: Bill Lane, 360-301-3441

Friday, June 16 – Upper Dungeness

This is an easy to moderate adventure of 6.8 miles round trip with 600 feet of elevation gain. The trail meanders along the Dungeness River and through ancient timber, providing a good feel for the backcountry. Bring a snack to enjoy at the Camp Handy shelter. Information: Sarah Schuch, 360-215-4065, or Jack Riggen, 360-437-0370.

Friday June 30 – Lower Lena Lake

The trek is a moderate 6-mile hike with 1,300 ft. elevation gain. The lunch spot is at a beautiful sub-alpine lake and a big picnic rock overlooking the water. Learn about the mystery of the disappearing Lena Creek. Information: Dean Morgan & Adele Govert, 360-437-8090.

Every Wednesday: Timberton Loop

Walk the Timberton Loop. Enjoy views of the Olympic Mountains. Meet at the trailhead on Timberton Road at 9:00 a.m. Information: Adele Govert, 360-437-8090.

For more hiking information and pictures of previous hikes to these and other destinations, check out portludlowhikingclub.com.

Zumba: What, Why, Where, When

by Peggy Welker, Guest Writer

Wikipedia says Zumba is “a dance fitness program created by Colombian dancer and choreographer Alberto “Beto” Perez during the 1990s. Zumba involves dance and aerobic movements performed to energetic music. The choreography incorporates hip-hop, soca, samba, salsa, merengue, and mambo.”

That sounds pretty intimidating for those of us who do not consider ourselves dancers or even to be very athletic. However, Zumba in Port Ludlow consists of a group of gently aging women with a variety of body sizes and shapes. A few have fancy workout outfits, but some come in old t-shirts and comfy pants. The music, routines, and instructors are fantastic. Some of us follow the routines pretty closely, but many of us just move to the music as best we can. It doesn't matter, and no one cares. The bottom line is to have a great time. We laugh, sometimes whoop it up, and feel totally amazing by the end of the hour.

Why do Zumba? It is the only thing that I do in my life where I actually work up a sweat and have fun doing it. But honestly, why would anyone at my age get up in the morning to make an early class, when we have so many other things to do? Being well into my sixties, my endurance is slowing down noticeably, and Ibuprofen is often my best friend. One of my primary goals over the next 10 years is to be able to spend time with my three grandchildren--hiking, riding bikes, swimming, and the most challenging of all, taking them to Disneyland. Zumba is the best way I know to be able to meet my 10-year goal. It helps keeps me energized, contributes to a positive outlook on life, and definitely keeps the joint pain in check.

Zumba classes are offered throughout the week at the Port Ludlow Bay Club. No, you do not have to be a Bay Club member to attend classes and, yes, men are welcome. The cost is $7 a class or $60 for a 10-class pass from Amy. Classes are held in the auditorium on a cushioned hardwood floor and there is lots of room to move! TJ teaches classes at 8:00 a.m. on Monday, and Amy teaches at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday and Thursday, and Kathy leads 5:45 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. If you have questions please contact Amy at amyniemann@olypen.com or TJ at peasncarrots@q.com. There will be a Zumba table at the Community welcome event on Wednesday, July 12. Stop by to meet the instructors and get more information. They might even show you a few steps.

New Rules for Golfers

(1) If a ball passes over a hole without dropping in, it's deemed to have dropped. The Law of Gravity supercedes the law of golf. (2) There is no penalty for out-of-bounds. If the golf club owners bought sufficient land, this would not occur. The golfer deserves an apology, not a penalty.

Clean Vessel Act Prevents Sewage Contamination

In 2016, the Washington Clean Vessel Act, a joint project of Washington State Parks, U.S. Fish & Wildlife and Washington Sea Grant, helped divert a record 10 million gallons of raw sewage from Puget Sound, Lake Washington, and other state waterways. Instead, it was collected for safe onshore treatment. This diversion is largely a result of training, outreach, and federal funds provided by U.S. Fish and Wildlife for the Pumpout Washington Program, a branch of the Clean Vessel Act that provides outreach and education to boaters and boater organizations.

This summer, the Pumpout team hopes to expand services to waterways that are more remote and with heavier boating traffic. Based on needs identified in boater surveys, services will soon reach the San Juan Islands, particularly near Sucia Island.

Washington Sea Grant redesigned a hands-free, spill-free pumpout adaptor kit to make it easier for boaters to use pumpout facilities without making a mess. Throughout 2016, Washington State Parks and Washington Sea Grant distributed 2,000 of the free adaptor kits at 50 marinas and raised awareness of best practices among Washington boaters. Since 2010, the team has added 65 new pumpout stations around the state for a total of 150, and has beefed up maintenance.

For more information about the program, including a Google map showing pumpout station locations in Washington State, visit pumpoutwashington.org.

The Clean Vessel Program is managed by Washington State Parks and supported by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's Sportfish Restoration Fund from special taxes on recreational boats, fishing gear, and boat fuel. The kits and training are made available to yacht clubs or other organizations that would like adaptor kits for members. Contact Aaron Barnett at 206-616-8929 or aaronb5@uw.edu for more information. Lake Washington boaters may schedule pumpouts at terryandsonsmobilepumpout.com, 206-437-6764.

Grace Christian Center

Solid, Spririt-Filled Bible Teaching

Grace Christian Center is celebrating its 15th year of serving our Lord Jesus here in the Olympic Peninsula. Planted in Port Ludlow, Grace Christian Center is a regional church, with people traveling from all over the County to worship with us. The Bible is our text book—we work hard to bring relevant teaching with an understanding of history, context, and current application in our very real and daily lives.

Grace Christian Center: Where we love Jesus first and foremost; where we love His Word and His presence; where we love His people, where your family can be a family in the presence of the Lord.

We invite you to worship with us Sunday mornings at 10.
